Situated at the northern tip of Cape May County, Ocean City is conveniently located just an hour from Philadelphia, two hours from New York City, and two and a half hours from Baltimore. The city is easy to reach from major highways, including the Atlantic City Expressway and Garden State Parkway. Four main routes are available for travel on and off the island: the 9th Street Bridge, which leads to nearby Somers Point via Route 52; the 34th Street Bridge, leading to Marmora, Upper Township, and the Garden State Parkway; the Rush Chatten Bridge, which connects Ocean City with its southern neighbor, Strathmere; and the Longport Bridge, which provides easy access to the seaside towns of Longport, Margate, Ventnor, and Atlantic City.

Drivers of electric vehicles have access to four charging stations in the parking lot at 9th Street and Haven Avenue. These Level 3 chargers can charge an electric vehicle in about 45 minutes, and the charging fee includes one free hour of parking.

For those traveling to and from the area by plane, Atlantic City International Airport is located in nearby Egg Harbor Township, less than 30 minutes away, and offers flights to and from destinations such as Myrtle Beach, Orlando, and Fort Myers via Spirit Airlines. Air travelers can fly on a variety of airlines to dozens of domestic and international destinations. The Ocean City Municipal Airport, located at 26th Street and Bay Avenue, is available for private flights.

The Ocean City Transportation Center, located at 10th Street and Haven Avenue, includes a New Jersey Transit bus station, with routes offering seasonal trips to New York's Port Authority Midtown Bus Terminal and daily trips to Atlantic City via the Atlantic County mainland. Guests traveling from southern points can experience a truly unique trip on the Cape May-Lewes Ferry. After arriving at Cape May Ferry Terminal, drivers can easily reach Ocean City in approximately 40 minutes via the Garden State Parkway.

Parking

All municipal lots and street parking are free between October 31 and May 1. Parking meters and fees for surface lots are in effect for the other six months. Time limits range from one to eight hours. Payment can be made by coins, credit card or through the smartphone app, Parkmobile.com.

Bicycling

Whether you bring your bicycle or rent one from a local bike shop, bicycling is an enjoyable way to experience America's Greatest Family Resort. One of our most bike-friendly routes is the Haven Avenue bike path, between 9th and 34th Streets. Experienced bikers might also try the West Avenue route, from 12th Street to 55th Street, or the challenge of biking the Ocean City Longport Bridge. To appreciate local wildlife, bikers can visit the Howard Stainton Wildlife Refuge, Corson's Inlet State Park, or the Crook Horn Creek Nature Trail.

Many bikers also enjoy riding on the Boardwalk, which allows bikes from 5 am to noon in the summer season and until 5 pm during the off-season, with the exception of certain special event dates. Bikes must stay inside designated biking lanes, and they are never allowed on the Boardwalk during evening and nighttime hours.

Throughout the City, bicyclists should obey all state and local traffic regulations. Helmets are required by New Jersey law for all riders under 17 and recommended for everyone. If you plan to ride your bike on the street in the evening, the bike must have a light. For questions about bicycle regulations, contact the City Hall Information Desk at (609) 399-6111.

Throughout the year, the Ocean City Dog Park at 45th Street and Haven Avenue provides a clean, safe, secure environment for well-behaved dogs to interact, exercise, and play. Park hours are from 8 am to dusk, 7 days per week, year-round. A "Paw Pass" access card is required to gain entry into the park. For more information, visit ocnj.us/dogpark.

Happiness comes in waves.

With eight miles of pristine, powdery sand along our coast, it's no surprise that Ocean City has received numerous accolades, including Best Beach in the Northeast, New Jersey's Favorite Beach, one of the Top 16 East Coast beaches to visit, and one of the 13 Best Beaches in the United States. Whether you want to catch a wave or grab a nap, look for shells or search for the perfect tan, Ocean City's beach will deliver.

Since 1898, the Ocean City Beach Patrol has been protecting visitors. Over the past 125 years, the OCBP has grown into one of the finest lifesaving squads in the country. At its peak staffing during the summer, the OCBP employs approximately 186 ocean lifeguards and EMT's to guard more than 40 beaches in America's Greatest Family Resort. With expert attention from a renowned Beach Patrol, you can relax and enjoy your time on our coast.

Grab your beach tag, and head for the water. We've got plenty of well-maintained and accessible comfort stations, as well as accessible beaches for visitors with a lack of mobility. Let Ocean City show you what so many beach lovers have already discovered: We've got the Best Beach in the Northeast.

Beach Tags

Beach tags are required for all beach visitors 12 and older. The funds raised by the sale of beach tags help to keep the beaches and boardwalk clean. Beach tag prices are: $10 for a daily pass, $20 for a weekly pass, and $35 for the season ($30 if purchased before May 31).

During the season, you can purchase tags from a City representative at most beach entrances or on the beach. You can purchase a pre-season tag at:

The Ocean City Welcome Center
on the Route 52 Causeway

City Hall at 9th Street and Asbury Avenue

The 46th Street Welcome Center on West Avenue

The Henry Knight Building at 12th Street and Haven Avenue

The Aquatic and Fitness Center at 17th
Street and Simpson Avenue

Some locations have limited hours during the pre-season, so be sure to call for hours before you visit.

Comfort Stations

Boardwalk restrooms are located at: 1st Street, 6th Street, the Music Pier (between 8th and 9th Streets), 10th Street, 11th Street, and 12th Street. There are also public restrooms at City Hall, 34th Street Playground, and 58th Street Beach. Family restrooms are located at 1st, 6th, 10th, 11th, and 12th Streets. All restrooms are handicap accessible. All restroom hours are subject to weather and crowd conditions. A privately-owned bathhouse at 13th Street and Ocean Avenue provides shower facilities and changing rooms from mid-June to Labor Day. Call (609) 399-7121 for information.

Accessible Beaches

Ocean City currently offers ADA-compliant beach-access mats stretching onto the beaches at Surf Road, Waverly Beach (off East Atlantic Blvd.), Stenton Place, 14th Street, 34th Street Beach and 58th Street Beach. Check ocnj.us/handicapped-accessibility for the most up to date information. The Surf Chair program offers free beach-accessible wheelchair service Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day weekend. Wheelchairs can be borrowed at the 46th Street Welcome Center from 9 am to 4 pm. To make a reservation (recommended) or learn more about this program, call (609) 554-0352. Surf chairs are also available at OCBP headquarters (1st Street, 12th Street, 34th Street, and 58th Street) for temporary use to shuttle individuals onto the beach.

Guarded Beaches

Ocean City beaches are fully guarded by the renowned OCBP from the last week in June through Labor Day. Lifeguard hours are 10 am to 5 pm on weekdays and 10 am to 5:30 pm on weekends and holidays. Swimming is permitted only on guarded beaches when lifeguards are on duty.

Our island has it all.

Ocean City is home to a number of unique neighborhoods, each with its own distinctive ambiance. From the stately Gardens to the bustling Boardwalk to the dynamic Downtown, each area of America's Greatest Family Resort has special sights and attractions.

If you're staying in Ocean City, be sure to browse the lovely shops in our Downtown area. If you're spending most of your time on the Boardwalk, take a stroll or bike ride through the beautiful Gardens of the North End. After you've enjoyed the activities offered in the Bay and Marina District, venture to the South End to explore Corson's Inlet State Park.

Whether you want the excitement of a rollercoaster or the serenity of a nature walk, Ocean City's neighborhoods combine to offer the perfect vacation for every personality and interest.

The Boardwalk

The bustling 2 ½-mile boardwalk is one of the most recognizable areas in Ocean City. Stretching from St. James Place to 23rd Street, the Boardwalk features amusement rides to thrill visitors of all ages, eclectic shops, delectable dining options, and the historic Ocean City Music Pier. It's not surprising that Ocean City's promenade was named the Best Boardwalk in New Jersey!

Downtown Asbury Avenue

Located between 6th and 14th Streets on Asbury Avenue, the island's Downtown features over 100 specialty shops and cafes. Browse and dine to your heart's content in the heart of Ocean City.

Bay and Marina District

On the west side of Bay Avenue, the Bay and Marina District offers boat slips, jet ski rentals, and other water activities. Try your hand at fishing, savor a dockside meal, and enjoy life on the Great Egg Harbor Bay. This neighborhood is home to the Bayside Center, an activities and education facility dedicated to the environmental and cultural aspects of Ocean City's bayfront. The Bayside Center is open to visitors in the summer months from 10 am until 4 pm.

North End

Located near the Longport Bridge, the North End, also known as The Gardens, features many single-family residences and large, verdant lots. The tranquil neighborhood offers lovely beaches and easy access to the nearby communities of Longport and Margate.

South End

From 34th Street to the southernmost point of Ocean City, the South End neighborhood offers beautiful wetland views. The South End is the narrowest point of the island, which means that no property is more than 2 ½ blocks from the water. This stunning neighborhood is home to Corson's Inlet State Park, the largest tract of undeveloped land along the New Jersey waterfront.

Come out and play.

If you love fun, Ocean City is the place to be. From miniature golf to Giant Wheels, our island offers entertainment options for kids of all ages. Ocean City's 2 ½-mile boardwalk is bustling with activity, morning, noon, and night. Carousels, bumper cars, roller coasters, water slides, arcades, and other attractions offer thrills and excitement. Creatively themed miniature golf courses will make your daytime or twilight game entertaining and challenging.

The entertainment doesn't stop on the boardwalk. Throughout America's Greatest Family Resort, you'll find fun activities. Join the crew of a pirate ship, take flight with a parasailing trip, make a splash in an inflatable Aqua Park, or have a mermaid makeover. You can do it all in Ocean City.

Come on in.

The water's fine!

If you love the smell of the salt air and the feel of an ocean breeze, you're in luck. Ocean City is on a barrier island that separates Great Egg Harbor Bay from the Atlantic Ocean, giving you a range of water-related activities to enjoy.

From paddleboards to parasailing, Ocean City visitors can make the most of their time by the water. Take a kayak tour on the bay or try your hand at sailing lessons. Enjoy the tranquility of fishing from a nearby bridge or experience the excitement of waterskiing. Choose your favorite activity - or try a new one each day of your vacation. Ocean City has it all.

Sailing

In addition to private companies that offer sailing lessons, the Ocean City Sailing Foundation, a nonprofit organization based at the Bayside Center, offers sailing lessons to students of all ages and experience levels. Lessons range from a two-hour introduction to sailing to private lessons and week-long morning or afternoon sessions.

OCSAILINGFOUNDATION.ORG

Boat Launches

The City of Ocean City maintains a public boat ramp at Tennessee Avenue and the Bay. Call 609-525-9289 for hours and pricing information. Corson's Inlet State Park offers an accessible boat ramp 24 hours a day, year-round. Fees are charged from Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day. Annual launch permits are available. Call 609-861-2404 for more information.

Surfing

Ocean City's gradually sloped beaches, optimal surfing waves, and clean water and shorelines make our island one of the most popular surfing destinations on the East Coast. Surfers can choose between guarded beaches at Waverly Boulevard, 7th Street, and 16th Street, which are designated surfing beaches, or they can surf on all beaches while lifeguards are off duty. A number of local surf shops offer hourly or daily surfboard rentals, as well as surf supplies. Surfing lessons are also available through surf shops and private surf schools.

Fishing

Whether you're interested in sea bass or stripers, wahoo or weakfish, Ocean City's waters are as productive as they are beautiful. Surf fishing can yield bluefish, flounder, tautog, kingfish, shark, and striped bass. Anglers visit the bay for weakfish, "snapper" blues, croaker, and flounder. There are three fishing piers on the Rte 52 Causeway (9th St Bridge). Just a few minutes to the north, portions of the old Longport Bridge have been converted to a fishing pier, and a few minutes to the south, the Ocean Drive/Rush Chattin Bridge is an ideal spot to drop a line. Anglers over the age of 16 must register with the NJ Saltwater Recreational Registration Program at nj.gov/dep/saltwaterregistry.

Get moving or get back to nature.

Some visitors prefer to lie on the beach for the duration of their stay, and others prefer to stay active, exploring the local wildlife, getting some exercise, or enjoying outdoor play. Whether you're interested in birdwatching or basketball, pickleball or playgrounds, shell collecting or shuffleboard, Ocean City has the sights, the facilities, and the programs to suit your interests.

Get back to nature at the Howard S. Stainton Wildlife Refuge, Corson's Inlet State Park, Bayside Center, or on a beach walk. Enjoy a round of golf at our municipal course or at one of the outstanding courses in the area. Play tennis, pickleball, basketball or other outdoor sports at one of our beautifully maintained facilities. Keep up your fitness regimen at the Ocean City Aquatic & Fitness Center, and let your kids burn off some energy at one of our delightful playgrounds.

Watch the migration of dolphins, geese, ducks, and butterflies, or try your hand at fishing for bluefish, kingfish, striped bass, and weakfish in this special seaside retreat.

The Bayside Center

Even if the weather isn't cooperative, you can still appreciate the island's natural beauty at the Bayside Center, located on the Bay between 5th and 6th Streets. The indoor museum features ship models, lifeguarding memorabilia, environmental displays, and models of Ocean City's historical buildings, built to scale. We've got culture down to an art.

If you think you need to choose between the beach and Bach, think again. Ocean City's vibrant cultural and artistic offerings range from Broadway-quality theatrical productions to painting workshops for children. The historic Music Pier hosts summer concerts by the Ocean City Pops Orchestra, fully staged musical productions by the Ocean City Theatre Company, and weekly concerts by well-known performers.

The Community Center is also home to the Ocean City Free Public Library, which hosts concerts, author talks, and children's programs, as well as the Ocean City Historical Museum, which makes the island's past come alive through exhibits and artifacts.

Downtown, you can purchase a truly unique memento of your Ocean City visit at the gallery operated by the Ocean City Fine Arts League, or visit a local shop or studio for a drop-in art class and workshop to create your own work of art.

A vertical photograph of a sunset over the ocean. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, casting a long, shimmering reflection on the water and the wet sand of the beach. The sky is filled with soft, orange and yellow clouds, and a single seagull is captured in flight, silhouetted against the bright light of the sun. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.

Bring your faith to Ocean City.

In 1879, four Methodist ministers purchased land known as Peck's Beach for the purpose of establishing a religious resort. The tree that shaded the ministers as they made plans for the retreat lives on at the Ocean City Historical Museum, and the traditions of faith and fellowship live on in the island's many churches and chapels. Whether you are visiting for a few days or the whole season, Ocean City offers many options to worship during your stay.

Take a bridge to the past.

First surveyed in 1695, the island now known as Ocean City was used as a location for grazing cattle. In 1700, John Peck, a whaler, used the island as a base for his business, and the land became known as Peck's Beach. In the middle of the next century, Parker Miller and his family were the first year-round residents of the island. They began the tradition of catering to the needs of people seeking recreation, offering shelter and meals to mainland sportsmen who ventured to the island to hunt waterfowl.

In 1879, a group of Methodist ministers, Ezra B. Lake, James Lake, S. Wesley Lake, and William Burrell, came to Peck's Beach in the hopes of starting a Christian seaside resort. They purchased the island, made surveys, cleared ground, located major streets, and formed an organization known as the Ocean City Association. Adhering to strict Christian principles, they prohibited the manufacture and sale of alcohol and required the closing of all commercial enterprises on Sunday. Within the next few years, the Ocean City Association made remarkable progress in the town they named Ocean City, building homes, a hotel, stables, barns, two railroads, a trolley line, the water and sewer companies, and the first Ocean City Tabernacle, where regular Sunday worship services were held.

The fascinating history of Ocean City is highlighted at the Ocean City Historical Museum, located in the Ocean City Community Center at 1735 Simpson Avenue. Enthralling exhibits allow visitors to explore topics such as:

- The construction of the boardwalk in 1887 to provide easy access to the ocean and beach.
- The Sindia, a four-masted steel hulled bark that was shipwrecked on the Ocean City shore on December 15, 1901. The tiller post of the Sindia protruded from the beach, while the entire hull and most of the valuable cargo lay buried under the sand. The wreck was designated an official New Jersey Historic Site in 1969.
- Grace Kelly, American actress and Princess of Monaco. As a child, Grace Kelly spent summers in Ocean City with her family and continued to visit the family vacation home, even after she achieved stardom.
